

GOVERNOR HITS THEM HARD

Denounces the Many Falsehoods Sent Out by Certain Newspapers.

Tells of the Purpose of these Falsehoods.

Gov. Taylor has given out the following statement:

"For weeks I have been made the target of vilification by certain unprincipled newspapers in Kentucky. The vilest insinuations have been made and the most outrageous falsehoods have been told. When I was called to attend the funeral of a beloved brother, it was seized upon as an attempt upon my part to fly from justice. Again, when called to my home by reason of the death of a dear sister, the fountains of abuse were opened and a flood of falsehood and slander poured forth upon me, the charge again being made that I was attempting to fly from the State.

"On my last return to Frankfort the Louisville Times hastens to publish the statement that I was met at the train and escorted to my home by a squad of soldiers with a Gatling gun. There is not one word of truth in this statement, but nevertheless it is published and circulated to harm me.

"Not content with this infamous, ghouliah work, which, with unblushing audacity has followed me to the grave of my brother and sister, even the privacy of my family has been invaded, and because my wife drew from the bank some money with which to pay the soldiers, an attempt was made to impress the people that she, too, was preparing to fly.

"Once, and for all, I desire to say, that neither directly nor indirectly had I any connection with the assassination of Senator Goebel. I am a citizen of this State amenable to its laws. I am not a criminal, neither shall I ever be a fugitive from justice. Whenever indicted, if such an outrage should be committed, I shall appear for trial, conscious of my innocence and of the ultimate triumph of right and justice.

"The whole purpose of this persecution has been, and is, to drive me from my post of duty and to punish me for holding the office to which I have been fairly elected. Such a surrender I have not made, nor will I make it unless the highest court of this land should adjudge that I do so.

W. S. TAYLOR."

The Disfranchised South.

Some of the Republican newspapers of the north are solemnly discussing the approaching election in the state of Louisiana as though anything whatever in that connection had "been left to chance," as though its result were not already fixed and the vote as good as counted. They are wasting energy that might better be saved for more profitable business. The oligarchy which now dominates the state of Louisiana has gotten cleverly away from the old klu klux methods and is operating this year under a new constitution, a document of its own framing, a charter of government that nullifies citizenship and makes a farce of the formality of holding elections. The suffrage clause of the present constitution of Louisiana requires that in order to vote a man must be able to read and write, or pay taxes upon $200 worth of property, or be a descendant of a man who voted before the war for the Union. It was framed for the purpose pose of disfranchising the negroes, but it also furnishes opportunity for the arbitrary elimination of the votes of other persons as well, through fraudulent manipulation of the election boards. It is not so clever an instrument for the overthrow of popular government as the Goebel law in Kentucky, and no sensible observer of the trend of southern politics believes that the result of the election to be held in Louisiana one week from today is in any sort of doubt.

It is true, as the Philadelphia Press says, that there is a fusion ticket in the field headed by the son of United States Senator Caffery for governor and supported by a large number of influential whites, and that Senator Caffery is himself on the stump making speeches in favor of this ticket. But this protest against government by the oligarchy will be unavailing, no matter how many actual votes it may command, just as the tremendous anti-Goebel majority in Kentucky was ineffective to keep Goebel out of the governorship in this state. The counting of the votes in Louisiana next Tuesday will be under the exclusive control of the present governor, and all the machinery of the election is operated under his personal direction. What will it avail the Cafferys to win their cause before the people? How can they fare better than Taylor in Kentucky, whose certified majority over Goebel was about three thousand, yet who has not the ghost of a chance to be governor of the state except by judgment of the supreme court of the United States?

The truth is that the Caffery democrats of Louisiana, like the Brown democrats of Kentucky are waging a hopeless fight against government by oligarchy so long as they conduct it under the existing laws and within the borders of their respective states. They are playing directly into the hands of the revolutionists, for they are standing doggedly and resolutely in the way of the reform that is possible through federal intervention alone. There will be no fair elections in the south until congress shall enact legislation compelling them. The single hope of relief from disfranchisement lies in federal legislation, and the southern democrats who protest against the existing order of things need to recognize this fact no less surely than the poorly informed republican newspapers of the north.—Commercial.

The Decision of the Court of Appeals.

We have not seen the opinion of the majority of the Court of Appeals prepared by Judge Hobson nor the concurring opinions by Judges Burnam and Guffy, nor the dissenting opinions by Judge Duffelle; and only know that the judgment of Judge Field has been affirmed by a vote of six to one. No one has ever doubted the affirmation of that judgment. The concurrence of Judges Burnam and Guffy was not expected. Weeks ago we predicted that the journals of the Legislature would be "fixed" to appear all right, and then it would be claimed that the courts could not go behind those falsified journals. There is undoubtedly a line of decisions which hold that in certain cases the journals of the legislative bodies import a verity which the courts cannot attack. We did not then believe, we do not now believe that those cases are pertinent to this controversy. This was not a legislative act; it was not the enactment of the law. And those cases apply to such acts of the Legislature. Before there can be a journal of the proceedings of a body there must be a meeting of that body. It was denied that the Legislature was in session when these journals said it was. It seems to us absurd that no meeting can prove there was a meeting. There must be a journal before its verity or contents can be the subject of inquiry; before the rule invoked can apply. It was denied that these were journals of the two Houses.

The courts must take judicial knowledge of sessions of the Legislature; and when courts take judicial knowledge of any fact they use all means—history, documentary evidence and whatever other means are necessary to ascertain the facts. The journals stated that at a certain named time the bodies met in the Capitol building. The court knew judicially and personally that this was untrue; for the court and the members individually declined to sit in that building; refused to hold court therein because it was occupied by the military. So this anomalous condition exists; the court knows sanctify the acts of both by solemn decisions that in Kentucky it is not the truth but the recitals that give title and elect officers.—Lexington Herald.

Riches of the Philippines.

The Pittsburgh Dispatch observes that the forests of the Philippines are, no doubt, richer than their gold mines. The fact that natives bring in gold from the interior is no indication of extremely valuable deposits. The Indians of North and South America were found in possession of gold and silver, yet they had knowledge of the really rich deposits of these minerals—deposits which the white man afterward discovered. The forests are real.

Mahogany, rosewood and other fine-grained timbers are plentiful in the forests of the Philippines. These woods are so abundant they are commonly used for flooring and to some extent for railroad ties, though the sawing and planing are all done by hand. No doubt the introduction of machinery will make an important hardwood industry in Luzon. But the existence of hardwood forests does not necessarily imply

The Dewey Folly.

How could Dewey get himself before the people as a candidate? He confesses that he is a Democrat, but the Democratic party will not touch him. Of course as innocent as he is of the practices of parties and of the elemental customs of politics, he knows he has no chance to be mentioned either this year or any other year in a Republican national convention. How, then, are those political admirers of his, whom he supposes to number hundreds of thousands, going to get a chance to vote for him? The Republican and the Democratic nominations are determined beforehand in this particular case, one faction of the Populists are reasonably certain to declare for Bryan, and thus to fuse with the Democracy, while a radical element of the Populists put up Wharton Barker for President a year or two ago, and the Social Democrats have placed Debs in the field.

Only two partisan elements remain whose action is still in any way undetermined. These are the "middle-of-the-road" Populists and the Prohibitionists. Is there any chance that either of these parties would take up Dewey? Would the Admiral accept the candidacy of either of them? There still remains the chance of getting an independent candidacy. But what value would be a nomination of this sort? Dewey says he is a Democrat, but he does not tell how he stands on anything. The fact that he declares himself to be a Democrat is not calculated to help him with the "middle-of-the-road" men, who hate the designation Democrat as deeply as a large number of the voters of the United States hate the name Federalist in the Hartford convention days. Nor will his Democratic leanings help the Admiral with the Prohibitionists.

The fact is, this Dewey outbreak is the most absurd irruption which has taken place in politics since the days when George Francis Train used to periodically announce himself a candidate for the Presidency, or since the old times when Daniel Pratt, the "great American traveler," harangued amused crowds regarding the frauds by which he was shut out of the White House. It is into the Pratt and Train category which Dewey's candidacy will drop, no matter what the regard the people of the United States may be for the Admiral as a fighter and as a man. The career of no man who has ever figured with any prominence in American history has had such a pathetic anti-climax as that by which Dewey is threatened. The persons whose vanity and folly are responsible for the pitiful spectacle which a patriotic and noble hearted but deluded old man is making of himself before the world deserve the severest reproof which the American people can pronounce.—Globe-Democrat.

Tweddell-Croft.

On last Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock Mr. H. R. Tweddell and Miss Ada E. Croft were united in marriage at the residence of the bride's father, P. R. Croft, Rev. Jas. A. Burden officiating. The contracting parties are worthy young people and have the heartiest congratulations and best wishes of their many friends.

Don't fail to hear Mr. Likens and Miss Thorpe at the M. E. Church, South, Sunday night. Mr. Likens is one of Kentucky's most earnest temperance advocates, while Miss Thorpe is known as "The Sweet Singer of Indiana." Rev. P. P. Crowe, of Owensboro, says: "I would rather be able to sing like her than to preach like Talmage." Hear them.

Seventy-Fifth Anniversary.

On Saturday, April 7th, a number of friends of Charles H. McFadden were invited to his home in Barnsley, the occasion being the 75th anniversary of his birthday. It was a pleasure to make the visit and see the enjoyment of Mr. McFadden and his wife and son in having good friends about them to partake of the hospitality of the home.

Several of the Earlington friends of Mr. McFadden were among his guests, and the arrangement for entertainment by the host and hostess reminded one of the visitors, an Eastern man, of the "good cheer" of the old-fashioned "hog-killing" gatherings of Christmas week in New Jersey, while the Kentucky visitors exclaimed, "a real log rolling table."

The tables were loaded until they groaned under the weight of "good things." Though the food was a turn, vegetables deliciously cooked, pastry most palatable, while the collection of cake was a feast of itself—corn bread in Kentucky style, preserves and canned delicacies from the good wife's hand, made up a feast, the most exacting appetite would rejoice to partake of and satisfaction would be guaranteed.

Mr. McFadden took the greatest delight in waiting upon his guests, and all were glad to express pleasure that they had been his guests and say how they appreciated the kindness of the family.

After the guests had all departed, we left Mr. McFadden, with loaded baskets upon his arms, dispensed to less favored ones in his little town, some of his bounty. His good heart knows how blessed it is to give—he is always ready to do for others. Though he is a wonderful man for one of his years, he feels he may yet reach another quarter of a century and live to pass the hundred year mile stone. May his succeeding anniversaries be as pleasant as the one of last Saturday.

A Precedent Is Fixed.

The United States supreme court last Monday sustained the ruling of Judge Evans of the district court of Louisville in the case of J. T. Baske against J. N. Comingle, and by so doing a precedent relative to the right of State officials to demand of United States revenue collectors the divulgence of certain secrets in the affairs of private parties, of which these officials are necessarily made confidants.

The case arose over the refusal of Mr. Comingle, collector of internal revenue in the Sixth district, to exhibit his records showing how much whiskey was in a certain warehouse in the county. Elias Block & Co., of Cincinnati, shipped a lot of whiskey from their distilleries in Ohio into Kentucky county, Ky., storing it in a bonded warehouse. Sheriff J. T. Baske appeared before Collector Comingle stating that the county desired to put a tax on the whiskey and requesting that Collector Comingle tell him how much whiskey was in the warehouse. Mr. Comingle asked time to communicate with the Secretary of the Treasury. The Secretary denied the right of the county officials to be shown the records. Collector Comingle was then arrested for contempt of court and sentenced to imprisonment. He appeared to Judge Evans for a writ of habeas corpus. The case was tried in Louisville last February and Collector Comingle was given his liberty. The State courts appealed to the circuit court of appeals, but the case being a constitutional one, could not be taken by the circuit court and went directly to the supreme court.

The opinion was handed down by Justice Harlan, who said that ordinarily the United States courts can not interfere with the State courts in a case until the proceedings are concluded, but this case presented an emergency, hence it was allowed to interfere with a federal officer in the discharge of his duties.

St. Charles Band Will Give a Concert.

The St. Bernard band at St. Charles has been reorganized with twenty members. This band will give their promenade concert and ball in the new hall at St. Charles on next Monday night, the 10th, Brink Southworth and James Long, floor conductors; J. A. Mitchell, musical director.

Prohibition Convention.

The Prohibitionists will hold their county convention at Madisonville next Saturday. Some of the best prohibition speakers in the state will be present, and much interest will be manifested.

NOT MUCH OF A DOCTOR.

"They say which a man arrives at the age of 40 he's either a fool or a physician. Now I'm just 40."—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

judicially that on that day the building was in possession of the military and the Legislature did not meet; but for the purpose of doing justice; of deciding rightly, of carrying out the will of the people as expressed at the polls, it is obliged to decide that what it gave as its excuse for the performance of its daily duties, is false. It is true to excuse the court from sitting; it is false when used to reverse the mandate of the voters at the polls. This puny law; this may be profound logic; this may be justice; but it is very confusing to the mind of a layman.

We believe Justice Bradley erred when he gave the casting vote that the truth could not be proved as against the certificate of the returning boards; we believe the Court of Appeals erred when it decides that the certificate of certain officers appended to a document called a journal can not be set aside to ascertain the truth and do justice.

If this be law, Kentucky is indeed in a deplorable condition. The election boards are supreme in electing the Legislature, the Legislature is supreme in electing the Governor, and the courts great fortunes in their working. There are splendid forests of mahogany, rosewood and others of hardly less value in the West Indies, Central America and South America, where machinery is not unknown, yet few fabulous fortunes have been made from them.

More money has been made out of pine in this country than from oak, cherry and walnut. Cedar is in better demand than boxwood. As a matter of fact, the demand for hard woods is limited, not the supply. The demand is growing, and no doubt it might be greatly increased by lowering the cost—a result that may possibly be achieved by Philippine developments, though the thousands of miles of transportation militate against it. In a word, the rich resources of the Philippines are more tempting in a theoretical than in a practical way. They will be developed in time, yielding large profits to a few, modest incomes to others and losses to some. That is the rule in all development. It may be taken for granted there no riches in those islands to be converted without effort or risk—not after more than three centuries of the rule of cupidity of Spain.

LOCOMOTIVE BLASTS.

Operator Guy, of Alabama, is now the night copying clerk in the dispatcher's office here.

The young man Stanton, who was run over by car No. 250 last week, died soon after the amputation of his leg, only one leg being injured instead of both cut off, as reported last week. He boarded a train at Henderson to ride to Seibert, but when the train reached that point it was running so fast that he was afraid to jump off and so rode to Slaughter, where he boarded the first north bound train. When Seibert was reached, it was also going at a rapid rate, but off he jumped, rolling over and over on the outside of the track, until one leg was caught by the wheels with above result.

Quite naturally the train men hope that no serious trouble may arise that will cause the production of coal to stop in Hopkins county, as such action would mean to them also a big loss, for the life of the trade on this division is the coal business.

Chief Dispatcher Sheridan has a special invitation to attend a meeting of the K. of P. at Madisonville, this week, when he is expected to respond to a toast.

By the change in passenger conductors on the fast run, Conductor Wilson will again be placed in charge of the Hopkinsville accommodation, and Conductor Gephardt will take charge of one of the south end locals.

Supervisor Sullivan has increased his force on the Henderson branch.

Agent Woodriffs and wife, of Madisonville, are expected over the recent purchase of an up-to-date phonograph, which reproduces several select songs, sung by Miss Mann, the daughter of former assistant superintendent E. H. Mann.

It is not often the case that a passenger is proved of the fact that the train he travels on is late. But it does seem if the following statement be true, that at least one man can feel good over such a fact and may be the means of saving his neck.

Frankfort, Ky., April 9.—Friends of Jim Howard, of Clay county, whom the Courier Journal has hinted at as the assassin of Mr. Goebel, state that he was not in Frankfort when the shooting took place. They say he arrived at 11:25 over the Midland road, while the shooting occurred at 11:15. Dr. H. Phillips, a resident and physician of Burning Springs, Clay county, late candidate for the Democratic nomination for Auditor, is here to-day.

In speaking of Howard he said: "I saw Jim Howard last week in Manchester. He told me he'd heard of the charges against him, and rumor had also reached his ears that a warrant for him had been issued in Frankfort. He told me very positively that he was entirely innocent, and that no force would be required to arrest him. 'If I am wanted,' he said, 'I am ready to surrender at any time. If the officers fail to come into Clay after me, I will meet them halfway or go to Frankfort on my own accord and give up there.'"

E. H. Mann, formerly assistant superintendent of this division, made his first trip on the passenger train last Sunday night, relieving Conductor Wilson.

The Air Line railroad has been ordered sold by Judge Evans, of the United States Court. The Southern railroad company will be the purchaser.

Railroad companies are called upon to settle claims for stock killed on the road for which, in most cases, they are not in the least responsible. Why not hold farmers or others responsible for the damage done railroads and telegraph companies by the falling of trees on the tracks and wires.

Agent Smith, of Henderson, after several weeks of serious illness, is able to resume work.

Yardmaster Mahoney, who has had charge of the C. Y. card at Henderson, for several weeks, has returned to his "first love" and is yardmaster for the L. & N. at that place.

The L. & N. has secured the contract for transporting a large amount of coal from mines in Illinois to Pensacola, Fla., there to be loaded on steamers bound for Germany. A train load of this coal passed through here Wednesday.

At the close of business March 31, the national debt, less cash in the Treasury, amounted to $1,112,250,328. This was a decrease of $76,029,328, during the month. The reserve fund, gold, coin and bullion amounted to $150,000,000. Government receipts in March were $48,726,887, and the expenditures $32,188,721. The surplus for March was $16,538,166, and for the first months of the present fiscal year, ending with last month, the excess of revenue over expenditure was $54,592,000. This indicates a surplus of at least $70,000,000 for the year ending June 30 next. This question of surplus revenue has been attracting the attention of Secretary Usher, of the Administration, and of Republican Congressional leaders. It is felt, however, that the session is too far advanced to justify any attempt being now made to disturb the existing war revenue taxes.

Hanson News.

G. T. Parrish has returned from Missouri, where he went in answer to a message from his brother, who was very low with pneumonia. Before Mr. Parrish arrived his brother was dead and buried.

J. R. Goebel, of Evansville, was here the guest of relatives and friends a few days since.

Fred Loving, of Malden, Mo., is spending a few days in our midst.

Rev. W. O. Rickard, of Rochester, Ky., was in our town last Sunday the guest of relatives.

W. E. Wooten, of Providence, was in town Tuesday.

J. L. Jackson, of Earlington, was in Hanson one day this week.

H. S. Boush, of Vincennes, Ind., the prohibition speaker for the second district of Kentucky, will speak at the school-house tonight, Tuesday.

A good crowd is expected.

Tom Fugate and wife, of the Browners county, were here this week the guests of W. D. Brown and family.

Mr. Glover, of the Beech Grove estate, is visiting the family of Dr. Ellis.

Dr. G. M. Everett has gone to Russellville this week.

W. H. Parrish is suffering with a severe attack of rheumatism. Miss Bertha Everett, of Morganfield, is visiting her father Rev. G. M. Everett, of this place.

Omaha, Neb., April 7.—Judge Keyser handed down an important decision this morning in a question of law in a case that has been watched with interest by labor organizations in nearly every locality. It established that the resolutions of public officials to use only union-made goods have no validity.

In the application of Bertha Gutschman for a writ of mandamus to compel the County Commissioners to award her the contract for printing any blanks during the year 1910, the Judge decided to issue the writ. Among the bids submitted in response to the commissioners' advertisement about the first of the year, that of Mrs. Gutschman was the lowest; but the commissioners refused to accept it because provision was not made to have the work done by union labor.

What a boomerang the "Our D'Aleone" mining investigation is proving to the Democrats! Beginning with the resolution of Representative Leno, upon which it was ordered, and almost every word of which Governor Stuenkel has sworn was untrue, the Governor and Manager Burbridge has recanted upon the Democrats. Representatives Leno and Sulzberger have had a lot of free advertising, but they have failed entirely to make a case. The action of the striking miners, incendiaries and murderers will never be sustained by reputable labor unions or by reputable wage-earners.

DOWN IN THE MINES.

The statement made through the press last Saturday giving President Mitchell, of the U. M. W., credit for saying that 1,600 miners in Hopkins County had struck, was as far from the truth as any statement could be, but it is along the same line as other statements made by his subordinates. At Madisonville, where the agitators have doubtless made their headquarters in some saloon annex, they meet from time to time to report on the great success they are making in their effort to organize this county. The reports made there, if correctly reported, would indicate that but few remain out of the fold. Whiskey tells some wonderful tales that will have a tendency to alienate the miners. Without any hesitancy or apparent love for the truth, say that Hecla is well organized; that the other St. Bernard miners count hundreds of their followers; that the Reinecke and Monarch miners are under their complete control. After comparing notes they send these alcoholic productions to Mitchell, who wants to believe any and all reports that will have a tendency to alienate the suffering in mind of the poor deluded beings he has caused to be in trouble by striking. From these false epistles he produces the article attributed to him last Saturday, wherein there is not one word of truth. Instead of such being the fact, the miners in this county are becoming more and more convinced, as they look upon the pinched faces of the wives and children of the few misled miners who are now idle in this county, that such an organization is a disgrace and therefore can never gain a foothold here.

One of the Seibert striking miners when asked why they were idle, said that "they were striking for more pay, he thought." Now, here was one of their own number who did not really know what the grievance was that caused their strike.

J. C. Peyton is now in charge of the coke works as foreman and with his long and varied experience will certainly make a good foreman.

Foreman John R. Evans, of No. 11 mine complained last week of some of the more backward others planting their gardens, and from various causes his force was greatly diminished, and a poor week's work was the result.

So much is being said about corporations and the enormous profits realized from the investment of capital that we consider it appropriate at this time to show the falsity of such assertions, especially so far as regards the St. Bernard Coal Co. By referring to the annual report of the profits derived by the stockholders in this company. The first ten years, no returns on investment; for one year, 2 per cent; for fifteen years, 3 per cent; for two years, 4 per cent; for one year, 5 per cent. Thus can be seen the small dividend paid the investors during a period of twenty-five years. The last year the dividend was five per cent, all above that amount being divided among the employees. So it can be seen this company practices what it preaches, "live and let live."

The St. Bernard company this week has increased its force of men at Harpersville, and it is predicted that this time the coal production at that place will equal that of other mines operated by that company.

On every hand we hear nothing but favorable comment on the action of the St. Bernard Coal Co. in distributing among its employees last pay day a portion of the year's profits. Another result is the large number that seek employment with that company. Thousands of men could be secured, if needed.

Secretary Bailey, of the Reinecke Coal Co., is determined to weed out the dissatisfied element working for him. The man who would rather starve than work for him is not his kind of man.

A young coal miner recently gave up his experience while a member of the U. M. W. A few years ago he went West, and applying for work was informed that before he would be allowed to work there he must join the U. M. W. In order to get work he did so, paying up his dues for a number of years in advance. He went to work. Trouble of some kind was constantly coming up, causing him to lose time and money. He became tired of hearing such a yoke and returned to Kentucky a wiser if not a richer man. He went to work in the mines here and was getting along nicely providing for himself and family and saving some money when one day an order came that all the men in the far West had struck and that he must follow. Feeling in honor bound to do so he quit work and without any cause whatever, and remained so until his term of membership expired. About two weeks of idleness was thrust on him to his sorrow.

Now he is confirmed in his belief that no good exists in such an organization.

Doc Griffin's friend, Purrell, alias Jones, is to be in the county again this week and we suppose comes supplied with new reasons why the miners should join the U. M. W. He will, no doubt, with tears in his eyes appeal to them to come to his aid on account of him being put in jail for interfering with other men's business, and in the meantime of Kentucky and will make false pleas along every line while he and his followers freely use among the saloon element that one hundred thousand dollar corruption fund and beggarly aid to organize Hopkins county.

The managers of the Oakhill Coal Company are now busily engaged putting in new mining machinery. They have after a sad and costly experience come to the conclusion that they can best run their own business, and will therefore in the future steer clear of labor unions.

Superintendent Harris of the South Diamond mine, says his men remain loyal and loyal to the St. Bernard company, which is, and has been in the past assisting them in securing homes. He also says there are signs of weakening among the agitators who are showing plainly the pangs of hunger.

The demand for both coal and coke continue good, and far exceeds the supply, although mines run every day.

A most remarkable instance of sagacity is exhibited by a mule at Harpersville mine. The coal is hauled from the mines to the outside by three relays of mules. The "out-pull," or last haul is drawn by a mule, familiarly known as "Old Lise," who has passed all the days of his life on that pull and has got her duty down to such a fine point that she never fails on bringing out the noon tray to announce the fact by loud baying and when the last tray of the day is made, she will take the noon tray with a loud cry of joy. This is the case no matter what time of day the run is over, when she hears the drivers inside announce to her driver that the run is over she never fails to proclaim the fact on coming to the outside. She can be driven by any one large enough to hitch and unhitch a draft chain and although the most tractable mule on earth, she will not tolerate the least abuse, but will start at once and run to the stable. She always walks near one rail coming out and close beside the other going down. Why she does so to this day has been a puzzle to those who are great favorites with the men and the hardest hearted arkin and gentle to "Old Lise."

Two thousand men idle means a loss to that number of miners of at least $2,000 daily and that sum of money taken away from suffering wives and children by action of the U. M. W. Should such a poverty-producing society exist and command respect?

Jack Kehoe must think he is living in the time of Molly Maguire. Don't talk too much about "buckin' Jack. Hopkins county is a bad place for talk like yours.

The United Mine Workers made the price of minings high in mines contracted by them in the southwest, that union mine cannot compete in the market and are largely idle. This is the result always, when arbitrary prices meet natural conditions. Note condition today in Kansas, Indian Territory and elsewhere.

The Diamond men have organized a meeting of "Free and Independent Workers"—G. Browning, president; C. Harris, secretary, and W. H. Edwards, chaplain. Already seventy-five members enrolled. Object, to instruct and enjoy—to build up and not tear down. Some of this next week.

A vigorous walking delegate, who is active in trying to get miners in Hopkins County to strike and live on the "hook," has been given Wood to support the 2500 men now out, and the expected strikers in Hopkins County, is one Klesinger who is announced as an "organizer" amongst the farmers; getting them to union mine cannot compete in the market and are largely idle.

Objections to the Cullom Bill.
In a letter to the Manufacturers' Record the traffic manager of a large Western manufacturing concern sets forth several objections to the Cullom bill for the enlargement of the powers of the interstate commission as follows:

"Having read with considerable interest your editorials on the subject of the proposed amendment to the interstate commerce law introduced by Senator Cullom, I take the liberty of expressing my views on the subject.

"Having had considerable experience in railroading, and now looking after the shipping interests of a large manufacturing firm in the West, I feel that the passage of the proposed amendment would be injurious to all manufacturers.

"The principle objection, from the manufacturer's standpoint, appears to be the section which authorizes the commission to prepare and publish within one year from the passage of this act a classification of freight articles and rules and regulations and conditions for freight transportation, which shall be known as the national freight classification. No intimation is given as to what shall be the 'regulations' or 'rules' which shall govern such classification, nor are shippers enlightened as to the probable class under which their shipments shall be carried. This section gives the commission unlimited power, and the shipping public have no opportunity to express themselves as to the classification, rules and conditions which shall govern their shipments before the classifications become effective.

"The condition of transportation vary in different States, and a rule which would be advantageous to one particular article in a certain district would not be applicable to the same in another section of the country.

"It is not to be expected that a commission sitting in Washington should be cognizant of the various manufacturing districts nor does it seem possible that they can manage and control the transportation of the entire railroad system of the United States. Those fully conversant with the problems of transportation are aware that there are many difficulties surrounding the classification and movement of freight which competing companies themselves are unable to satisfactorily adjust, and it cannot be conceived that an untrained commission composed of men whose lives have been spent in different channels of thought and action can grasp and solve those problems to the study of which expert railroad officials have devoted their entire lives.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

There's nothing new about it. Your grandparents took it. 'Twas an old Sarsaparilla before other sarsaparillas were known. It made the word "Sarsaparilla" famous over the whole world.

There's no other sarsaparilla like it. In age and power to cure it's "The leader of them all."

Ayer's Pills cure constipation. After suffering terribly I was induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, took three bottles and now feel like a new man. TERRIBLE TEXAS FLOODS.

Thousands Gather at Austin to View the Devastation Wrought by the Ruthless Waters.

THE CITY PRACTICALLY IN DARKNESS.

The Great Power House That Supplies Electric Light and Power a Mass of Ruins as the Result of the Breaking of the Big Dam—Many People Were Drowned.

Austin, Tex., April 8.—Fully thirty thousand people gathered at the powerhouse stationed north of this city to witness the ruins of the plant which cost this city one and three-quarter millions of dollars, and which years ago the waters of the Colorado river were still plunging and foaming around the wreck, eating away the big pile of granite which once formed the dam, as though it was nothing more than chalk rock. So fierce was the current that great boulders were carried half a mile and falling rolled over and over by the turbulent tide. The powerhouse, which succumbed to the terrific wash of the water at two o'clock this morning, lies a mass of wreckage on the edge of the river, all the valuable machinery either having been thrown into the river or built up by the falling of the powerhouse. The wreck of the plant is complete.

The situation in the city tonight is most serious. The wreckage of the plant means that it will take several weeks to secure even a temporary water and light system. It can be made possible even then. In the meantime the city will be in a bad sanitary condition. All the hotels, private residences and stores are without water, and there is no fire protection. Churches were unable to hold services tonight for want of light, and all public meetings were abandoned. The daily papers are hand-drawn in their publications, being deprived of their electric power. The river is falling tonight.

Everything is Under Water.

Reports from the neighboring country are to the effect that everything is under water. In Williamson county, south of here, railroad bridges and tracks have been laid waste, and railroads have stopped running. Hundreds of head of cattle have been drowned and miles of fencing torn down and washed away. In Bastrop county and in the adjacent portions of the country, the situation is appalling, everything being under water and much loss of property is reported.

The country tributary to the Colorado river all the way down its length is being inundated, and while it is believed the worst is over, the loss, as estimated tonight, will exceed some three million dollars, counting Austin as the largest loser. Fortunately the list of drowned is small, the loss, as reported up to tonight, is limited to those reported in the press dispatches last night, as it seems the only drownings reported were where the dam broke and caught the victims unaware.

There were no trains operated on the inland Great Northern, as much of its track and quite a number of bridges were washed away during last night. The Missouri, Kansas & Texas railroad is also a heavy sufferer from a like cause.

Large Accidents Under Water.

Reports from several sections of central Texas are to the effect that a large wreckage is under water, and much damage has been suffered in property and live stock.

The Waters Are Aging.

Great Property Damaged, but No Loss of Life Reported.

Houston, Tex., April 8.—As the Texas rivers are now falling, and there is not much danger of a general flood. The crops have been damaged over a wide area, but there is still time for farmers to replant if they can get the seed. Corn has been planted over once, and will have to be planted the third time. The farmers, as a rule, have not planted much cotton because the heavy rains have kept them out of the field. The railroads have lost many small bridges, and it will be a week before the traffic resumes its normal condition.

San Antonio reports tremendous rains have fallen throughout that section, the main flood in the Colorado from the break in the great Austin dam reaching there this evening. The river is on a 38-foot rise at 7 p. m., and is rising one foot an hour. It is estimated that between 10,000 and 15,000 acres of growing crops in the bottom lands within five miles of town have been inundated by from ten to fifteen feet. The loss will reach over fifty thousand dollars. The stock has been destroyed. No deaths have been reported in that section so far from drowning. Great excitement and uneasiness prevails last night.

Cameron reports that the flood in Little River now equals that of last July. The waterworks and powerhouse have been broken down. People were warned, and no loss of life is reported.

Brinsky, San Gabriel and Little River and all overflowing, and the entire destruction of all crops. The rivers are still rising.

Reports from points on other rivers are of damage to crops, but no loss of life.

All sections tributary to the Colorado river report serious damage to property.

Jail officials interfered in time to save his life. Humberger was to have been taken to court during the day to begin his life imprisonment.

Owens and State Senator Schalkwijk were elected delegates to the national convention, and instructed for McKinley. The resolutions endorsed the administration and expansion and reaffirmed the St. Louis platform of 1896.

St. Louis Democrat was named as presidential elector.

Accepted Just in Time.

Minneapolis, Minn., April 8.—Just one minute before the expiration of the time limit within which the Gillette-Herring Manufacturing company had agreed to accept a contract for the reconstruction of the Kansas City convention hall, the acceptance of the committee building was received by telephone. This means that the work will be completed by June 15, under a sufficient guarantee.

A Lake Mystery.

St. Louis, April 7.—This city is struggling with the mystery of an unknown woman, whose body was found in the lake in Lyon park, in the southern part of the city. Coroner Lloyd says she was not drowned, the physician signs indicating that the body was placed in the water after death.

DEWEY'S WESTERN TRIP.

Final Arrangements Made For the Visit to Chicago on the Manila Bay Anniversary.

THE AFFAIR WILL BE ENTIRELY SOCIAL.

Leaving Chicago the Admiral Will Make a Twelve Day's Tour, Taking in Jacksonville, Ill., St. Louis, Memphis, Louisville, Nashville and Frankfort.

Washington, April 10.—The Chicago reception committee, consisting of W. H. Conly and J. M. Glenn, had a final interview with Admiral Dewey, no mention was made of politics, the admiral was asked to matter being that since he has accepted the invitation to visit Chicago last October, conditions had so changed that he was accepting no further invitations. He assured the committee that he was glad to accept the hospitality of the city of Chicago. He told the committee he had received invitations from various organizations there to become their guest, but had not accepted them. He had placed himself solely in the hands of the city of Chicago.

The Admiral's Wishes.

He requested that there be no separate entertainments arranged for him and Mrs. Dewey. He wished matters to be so arranged that he could attend the functions at which he would be present. The admiral, who received from the committee in a most cordial manner, was assured that his wishes in this respect would be carried out, and also was informed that arrangements had been made to have his son, who is now a resident of Chicago, participate in the various entertainments.

The Admiral's Party.

The admiral's party, consisting of himself, Mrs. Dewey, Lieut. Caldwell, Mr. Maddy, of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad; Charles Corbett, and Mrs. Dewey's maid, will leave this city in a special train over the Baltimore & Ohio on April 20, in time to reach Chicago and rest before the ball at the Auditorium on the night of the 20th, the eve of the second anniversary of Manila bay. The train will be one of the hushest ever run over the Baltimore & Ohio tracks. Admiral and Mrs. Dewey will occupy President Cleveland's private car.

No stops will be made between Washington and Chicago, as the admiral does not wish the trip to have the appearance of a stumping tour. After leaving Chicago, however, the party will make a 12-day tour through Mississippi valley. So far as one line this will include a stop of one day at Jacksonville, Ill., two days in St. Louis, two in Memphis, two in Louisville and two in Nashville, and one in Frankfort.

Entirely a Personal Matter.

Admiral Dewey was asked concerning his circulation in the city. Mrs. Dewey had left the Catholic church and was to become a communicant of St. John's Episcopal church here. He was asked whether he did not wish to discuss; that he did not see it was a question of national interest whether Mrs. Dewey was a Catholic, a Methodist or an Episcopalian. It was a matter entirely personal to Mrs. Dewey, and he added, "Mrs. Dewey is not being interviewed now on any subject."

TWO VERY PROMINENT PUBLIC MEN.

Owe Health and Happiness to Pe-ru-na

Hon. Wm. Youngblood, Auditor for the Interior.

Congressman Howard from Alabama.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 10, 1900. Pe-ru-na Drug Mfg Co., Columbus, O. Gentlemen—I've often heard of your great medicine and have persuaded my wife, who has been much of an sufferer from catarrh, to try Pe-ru-na, and after using one bottle she has wonderfully improved. It has proved all you have claimed for it, and I take pleasure in recommending it to anyone who is afflicted with catarrh. Yours, Wm. Youngblood, Auditor for the Interior.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4th, 1900. Pe-ru-na Drug Mfg Co., Columbus, O. Gentlemen—I have taken Pe-ru-na now for two weeks, and find I am very much relieved. I feel that my cure will be permanent. I have also taken it for a gripe, and I take pleasure in recommending Pe-ru-na as an excellent remedy to all fellow sufferers. Very Respectfully, M. W. Howard, Congressman Howard from Alabama.

Catarrh in the various forms is rapidly becoming a national curse.

An undoubted remedy has been discovered by Dr. Hartman. This remedy has been thoroughly tested during the past forty years. Pe-ru-na cures catarrh in all stages and phases. There is no remedy that can be substituted.

Any man who wishes perfect health must be entirely free from catarrh.

Catarrh is well-nigh universal, almost omnipresent. Pe-ru-na is the only absolute safeguard known. A cold is the beginning of catarrh. To prevent colds, to cure colds, is to cheat catarrh out of its victims. Address Dr. Hartman, Columbus, O., for a free catarrh book.

THURSDAY, APRIL 12, 1900.

Our readers should notice the strong statement of Gov. Taylor in another part of this issue. It is thoroughly characteristic of this great Kentuckian.

Public sentiment is growing against those worthless fellows who are too trifling to work and who tramp about over the country trying to persuade other men to quit their work and let their families suffer.

The honest, hard-working men of Hopkins county ought to be under lasting obligations to Sheriff Hankins and Judge Hall for their determination to protect the county. Any county ought to be prosperous that has a set of officers who are ready to do their duty regardless of results, and who are backed by as noble a class of citizens as ever inhabited a county.

Judge Givens is organizing a new Hopkins County Fair Company, with good prospects of success. The Judge is the man to run a county fair and the Bee will hunt up its rich relatives and urge them to take stock with him. A county fair is good for the county when properly conducted, and Judge Givens has a clean record. He is a good fellow—popular, and we are for him.

ADMIRAL DEWEY'S ridiculous attitude in which he has placed himself by his late announcement as a candidate for the presidency arouses the pity of some of his true admirers. There was a time when Dewey was almost the idol of the American people, but like many other great men he has made a fatal step and one that very likely will place clouds over the sunset of his great and noble life. We firmly believe that he was led into the trap by some indiscreet parties who deserve the condemnation of the thousands of people who have learned to love and admire this great, noble-hearted American.

To every lover of good government the action of the officials and people of Hopkins county the past month has been most gratifying. When the greatest industry of the county was threatened by irresponsible demagogues from other counties and States, and by a few silly residents of the county as well, with the streets of the county town filled by penniless vagrants, whose falsehoods and threats were interlarded with ridiculous promises such as only irresponsible men make, then did the county officials, backed up by public sentiment announce that no Indiana or Illinois anarchy should roam about old Hopkins unchallenged. Such public sentiment regardless of creed or politics, is evidence of the highest type of the American citizen. It was an announcement to the world that one community in this land of ours, guarantees to the worker his right to labor as he saw fit, without fear or favor.

Such communities as this one of ours attract the capitalist and get the men whose push and energy bring prosperity. We believe the stand taken by the people of Hopkins county during past and present labor troubles, in adjacent counties and States will redound greatly to their benefit.

August Flower.

"It is a surprising fact," says Prof. Houlton, "that in my travels in all parts of the world, for the last ten years, I have met more people having used Green's August Flower than any other remedy. For dyspepsia, deranged liver and stomach, and for constipation. I find for tourists and salesmen, and for persons of all positions, where headaches and general bad feelings from irregular habits exist, that Green's August Flower is a grand remedy. Rowe denies the charge and says that he had taken morphine on the advice of a physician. Rowe is represented by Capt. W. T. Ellis, R. A. Miller, R. W. Slack and Joe Noe.

HAMMERING AT BRABANT.

The Boers Resume Their Attack on Three Sides of Gen. Brabant's Position at Wepener.

BOERS BEING RAPIDLY REINFORCED.

Mysterious Movements of British Troops Being Made at Bloemfontein. But Correspondents are Not Allowed to Give Any Hint of Their Destination.

London, April 10.—The Boer attack on Gen. Brabant's force at Wepener was resumed again at dawn. The enemy's attack on two or three sides, on Monday, lasted until 2:30 in the afternoon, when the firing ceased, and it was believed that the Boers had been beaten off, but it was announced this morning from Alwal North that the fighting had again begun.

Boers Being Reinforced.

Gen. Brabant's force, numbering from 2,000 to 3,000, held positions in a rough country. It is not known what the numerical strength of the Boers is, but whatever it may be, it is being rapidly augmented. A body of 2,000 Boers is marching towards Springfield in the Southfield, between Wepener and Springfield. The detention of heavy guns was heard at Maseru, on Monday. Sir Godfrey Lagden, the British resident commissioner of Basutoland, has left Maseru for the border.

Directed to Springfield.

The events in the southeast portion of the Free State have caused the eighth division, which had been ordered to Fourteen Streams, to be directed to Springfield.

Mysterious Movements.

Mysterious movements of troops at Bloemfontein are proceeding. The newspaper correspondents are not allowed to telegraph their destinations, and the presumption is that Lord Roberts is making dispositions to cut off the raiding Boer forces when they try to withdraw northward from the pursuing British columns.

Warlike Feeling Heightened.

The reappearance of the Boers in the occupied country has caused a revival of the warlike feeling among the Free States of the Transvaal and the Philippolis districts. The federal agents are busy getting details of the surrendered Boers, and owing to the British garrisons being withdrawn from these districts, the British residents are uneasy, and sent detachments to Springfield to ask for help. They were told that steps for their defense would be immediately taken.

Around Bloemfontein Again.

The Boers are reported to have ventured south of the Tugela river, and to be posting heavy guns four miles north of Bloemfontein. They are also said to have fortified the vicinity of Vredefort.

Gen. Sir Frederick Carrington has reached Cape Town, and is going to Belmont, Portuguese East Africa, forthwith.

Store Horses for the Cape.

The war office proposes to land at Cape Town, before the end of May, 20,000 horses, which will be conveyed there in 23 steamers sailing from New Orleans, Buenos Ayres and Australian ports.

An Unimpaired Likelihood.

The Westminster Gazette likens the British campaign to the "fruitless series of campaigns in which the large disciplined armies of Spain sought to crush the Cuban insurrection," adding:

"Of course our troops far exceed in number and discipline the conquerors of Spain, and the climate is in our favor, but our arms—equally excellent as the rugged blades of the Cuban insurgents."

NEWS THROUGH BOER SOURCES.

A Third Defeat of the British Within a Week.

London, April 11.—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Brandfort, dated Sunday, says:

"Yesterday Gen. De Wet inflicted the third defeat on the British within a week at Mookfontein, killing and wounding 99. He captured 100, with 12,000 guns, losing five Boers killed and nine wounded."

Water Supply Satisfactory.

London, April 11.—The Bloemfontein correspondent of the Morning Post says:

"The water supply continues satisfactory. Entrenching is proceeding vigorously on the hills commanding Bloemfontein. Civilian labor is to be utilized. Sickened among the troops is somewhat diminishing."

Hard on Horseflesh.

Bloemfontein, Monday, April 3.—Boer forces are continuing arriving, but competent authorities estimate that the wastage of horses monthly by the British forces in South Africa must be calculated at not less than 5,000.

Maud Adams' Statue Mended.

New York, April 10.—Capt. A. H. Mattow, press representative of the United States commission for the Paris exposition, says the $150,000 gold statue of Maud Adams, the actress, typifying "The American Girl," will not be given up at the exposition.

Gen. Otis to Be Relieved.

Washington, April 10.—At his own request, Maj.-Gen. Otis will be relieved of his command in the Philippines May 1, and will be succeeded by Maj.-Gen. McArthur, the orders to that end having been issued by the war department.

Marie Corelli's New Story.

Marie Corelli, for the first time in five years, has written a short story for an American magazine. "The Laurels of the Brave" is the title of a bitter, brilliant, timely story which she has just finished for the Saturday Evening Post, of Philadelphia. It deals with the South African War Charities, and handles without gloves the "Society Department" of the English War Office and the women who, for advertising purposes, are donning khaki. "The Laurels of the Brave," superbly illustrated by Harrison Fisher, will appear in The Saturday Evening Post of April 14.

Refused to Step Down.

Barboursville, Ky., April 9.—Circuit Court began this morning. For a time it was doubtful who would act as Judge, John Henry Wilson or Judge Brown. When the time for opening court arrived Judge Brown took the bench, and a few minutes later Judge Wilson appeared with a certificate from the Election Commissioners and signed by B. C. Ham, Judge Brown refused to vacate.

There are several murder cases set for this term of court, among them being that of Dee and Wiley Baker, the alleged Clay county feudists, and Geo. Cole, for the murder of Town Marshall Tom Roach, on December 31, 1898.

A Fruitless Attempt.

An attempt was made on Tuesday night, the 24th inst., to rob the Seaboard Deposit Bank at Seaboard. The burglars used nitro-glycerine and blew off the front sash of the safe door, but their efforts to accomplish anything further were fruitless. The safe has a time combination and is burglar proof. Had it not been for this the robbers would have made a large haul.

Dr. G. W. Young to Speak.

Rev. G. W. Young, of Winchester, Ky., will talk to the people of Earlington, Friday night, April 26th, at the M. E. Church, South, on State Temperance work. Dr. Young is one of the finest speakers in the state and never fails to interest those who hear him. If you miss his talk you will miss a treat. Be sure to hear him.

When the Hon. Joseph Weldon Bailey, the former leader of the Democracy, first arrived in Congress he insisted upon the sergeant-at-arms deducting from his salary for those days on which he was absent. Now, this Democratic statement of who makes a specialty of the Constitution and glories in being better than his colleagues, can go off on a campaigning tour for a seat in the Senate and draw his Congressional salary without doing his conscience the least bit of violence. The Hon. Joseph Weldon Bailey as a reformer is sadly lacking in staying qualities.

The Republican "clean sweep" in the Mississippi Valley do not indicate a revolt because the Republicans in Congress have not adopted free trade with Porto Rico to suit the Democrats and establish a dangerous precedent.

Liberty League at London.

London, Ky., April 9.—A large and enthusiastic meeting was held in the courthouse here today at which a liberty league was organized for Laurel county. Nearly 500 persons, representing all political parties, were present and participated in the meeting. The following resolutions were reported and unanimously adopted:

We pledge ourselves to use all our efforts to secure the repeal of this partisan election law, known as the "Goebel law," and that we vote for no one for any county or State office who is in favor of it and to stand bravely and courageously for the inalienable rights of freemen in Kentucky.

After the resolutions were adopted the chairman announced that those desiring to become members of the liberty league, would have the secretary enroll their names and as all present were eager to become members of the organization it was necessary to appoint several enrolling clerks to accommodate the large audience. Steps were taken to organize in each precinct of the county.

Misses May Bradley and Ruth Platt, of Madisonville, were in the city one day last week in the interest of their church.

Rev. J. A. Burden preached to a large audience at the General Baptist church last Sunday night from the text, "What is that to thee, follow thou me." The sermon was well received.

Election returns last week were received with great satisfaction by Republicans in Washington, especially the gains in Nebraska and Kansas. They are valuable straws as indicating the trend of sentiment in the far West, where the people seem to be content with a national policy that has resulted in universal prosperity.
